With newspaper cutting which includes a photograph of Cpl. (later Sergt.) R. May.

Extract from Newspaper cutting: "It was however, ascertained that the DCM was awarded to this gallant soldier for his successful work in occupying an advanced post at Havrincourt Wood, in the neighbourhood of Cambrai, shortly before the big battle a few weeks ago. Sergeant May was in charge of the Scouts. He went out in the day-time with a few men, and remained in an advanced position until dark when he returned, and then took up a company and occupied the post. The Germans bombed them out of the "sap" but Sergeant May and his men took a position about 50 yards behind it, or about 300 yards in front of the British lines. They were under trench mortar fire all the time.

LOT

- 137 M.G.S., bars Egypt and Maida; to Hugh Ample, 27th Foot. Very fine.

Research documents included.

H. Ample: born in County Fermanagh, Ireland. Evidently enlisted in the 27th Regt. in 1798 or '99, as records show the granting of additional pay in Dec. 1806, for 7 yrs.' service. After the battle of Maida Ample served at Messina and Milazzo in Sicily until 1812, when he went to Spain. He became entitled to extra pay for 14 yrs.' service whilst at Tarragona, Spain, on 25 April, 1813. In 1814 he was sent to Canada, but the regt. was ordered to France almost immediately and landed in Europe on 18 May 1815. Ample's records show the award of 2½d der pay and 2 yrs. extra service towards his pension for being present at the battle of Waterloo. He was in the regimental hospital from the latter part of June, 1815, until December of that year, which could mean he was wounded at Waterloo, and he was "invalided to England" on 26 Oct. 1816; listed on all musters as a "Waterloo Man." Admitted to Chelsea Hospital on 27 Jan. 1817, and awarded an "out-pension" of 1/- per day. Reason for discharge from Regt. given as "weakly, and length of service." Age on admission to hospital given as 40 yrs., length of service 18½ yrs., plus 2 for Waterloo. Confirms in Fosters.

- 140 Waterloo, to Serj. William Hitchcock, 1st Batt., 40th Regt. Foot. Ornamental suspension engraved "Peninsula". with documentation. Pitted, about fine.

Hitchcock appears on the 1st muster available for the 2nd Batt., 40th Foot, in 1799, and other records would indicate that as his year of enlistment. In 1801 he was at Malta,, and later at Minorca. His regt. was part of the reserve in Egypt that year also, but it is not known if he was with them at the time. By July, 1802, he had returned to England and transferred to the 1st Batt. of the 40th. After 4 years. duty in England his regt. went to South America, and the 1807 musters taken at Montevideo show that he was there, and undoubtedly took part in the assault. By the middle of 1807 he was back in England, and was promoted to Corporal on 1st March, 1809, and in August of that year to Sergeant. The next year, however, while serving at Colorico, near Lisbon, he was reduced to Private for reasons unknown. (If he had received an M.G.S. medal, it would have "an impressive number" of bars, as his name appears on all the musters of the 40th, which took part in many battles on the Peninsula, from Roleia to Waterloo). Hitchcock was promoted directly Sergeant again on 24th June, 1814, probably as a reward for general good service in action. He was transferred to 2nd Batn. again 1816, still serving in France, after which the records cease . . . except for the fact that a Sjt. William Hitchcock, of the 40th Regt., was admitted to the Chelsea Hospital on 18 March, 1818, and entered as a "Waterloo Man." Since there was only one Sergeant William Hitchcock in the 40th at Waterloo, it must be the same man.

*" . . . his task was to clear a route through known mined areas to the South edge of the LEBISEY feature for tanks of the Staffordshire Yeomanry. In spite of a considerable number of casualties to "C" Company from sniping, mortar and shell-fire, he pressed forward with his task showing great determination and excellent powers of leadership for a N.C.O. responsible for an independent job, and succeeded in getting a route through and information back to the tanks so that they were through to their objective by H. plus 30. This task involved the removal of a number of mines and made up booby trap charges. After completing this task which resulted in successful consolidation of the right flank, he rallied his section, and having already found some booby traps, continued to search and clear buildings in the company area of them, although this area was still infested with a number of the enemy. ## SALE CATALOGUES

On the average we issue twelve or more Coin Catalogues and three Naval & Military Medal Catalogues each year, some of which are usually of Sales of important Collections.

CATALOGUE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Sale Catalogues, frequently illustrated, are normally posted to Subscribers about three weeks prior to the date of Sale.

Lists of "Prices Realised" are issued after each Sale, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to value. The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading. The Lists of "Prices Realised" will probably be enclosed in a following Sale Catalogue.

AIR MAIL POSTAGE

To allow subscribers resident outside Europe time to submit Postal Bids, Sale Catalogues will, if desired, be sent by Air Mail. Air Mail postage is not, however, included in the Subscription Rate and the cost must be borne by the Subscriber. In such cases a deposit against the cost is required.
